Subject: Objection to NewLeaf's motion to have its reply materials under seal or any confidential protection

Dear Madam or Sir:

I am writing to object to NewLeaf's motion to have its reply materials under seal or any sort of confidential protection.

I am an independent reporter/blogger and an documentary filmmaker for the last 10 years. My debut documentary has been collected by our national archive (the federal government ?Library and Archives Canada?) permanent collection in Ottawa since 2009.

I have been reporting on the case and my lastest report include an almost 30 minutes long video interview of Dr. Lukacs. My request for interview with Mr. Jim Young, CEO of NewLeaf Travel Co. has not been acknowledged so far.

I strongly object to NewLeaf's motion to have its reply materials under seal or any confidential protection !

I consider any confidential protection of NewLeaf's reply material be a severe and an unjustifiable violation of my Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms s. 2(b) rights.

my best,
Kempston
